1. Purpose and scope

This AR regulates accepting certain types of gifts for distribution to military personnel. It does not supersede or circumvent any restrictions on accepting gifts under AR 600–50 or chapter 7, AR 672–5–1 (5 USC 7342). It does not apply to gifts per AR 1–100 (10 USC 2601), since those gifts are not for distribution to individuals. Also, it does not apply to gifts to nonappropriated funds under AR 230–1.

2. References

Required references are listed below:

a. AR 1–100 (10 USC 2601) Gifts and Donations). Cited in paragraph 1–1.

b. AR 230–1 (The Nonappropriated Fund System). Cited in paragraph 1–1.

c. AR 600–50 (Standards of Conduct for Department of the Army Personnel). Cited in paragraph 1–1.

d. AR 672–5–1, chapter 7 (Military Awards). Cited in paragraph 1–1.

3. Applicability.

This regulation applies to Active and Reserve Components of the Army (Army National Guard and Reserve).

4. Explanation of term

Gift. A voluntary offer of goods by individuals or organizations for distribution to Army personnel for their personal use.

5. General policy

a. Accept only those gifts that promote health, comfort, convenience, and morale. Examples: reading materials; writing paper.

b. Accepting alcoholic beverages is not authorized.

c. The donor must pay all transportation charges from point of origin to recipient.

6. Delegation of acceptance authority

a. This AR authorizes MACOM commanders, the Superintendent of the US Military Academy, and the heads of HQDA Staff agencies with command jurisdiction over subordinate commanders to accept gifts for distribution within their respective commands. Refer an offer of gifts for distribution beyond a command's jurisdiction to HQDA(DAAG-PSI), WASH DC 20310.

b. Commanders listed in a above may delegate this authority to subordinate commanders.

c. The Adjutant General, Department of the Army, as the designated representative of the Secretary of the Army, may accept gifts for distribution in CONUS and in oversea commands if more than one command is involved (a above).

7. Restrictions on acceptance

a. Accepting gifts is subject to the following provisions regarding advertising and public announcement:

(1) Advertising marked on articles must not be the type that will discredit the military service.

(2) The soldier will not be the medium for redistributing the material to others.

(3) The donor will not restrict public release of information regarding the gift.

(4) DA will make no public announcement of gifts received.

(5) Except in rare cases specifically authorized by the Secretary of the Army, gifts will not be acknowledged publicly. However, the commander authorized to accept gifts will send a suitable acknowledgment to the donor on behalf of the military personnel concerned. Letters of acceptance will not imply DA or accepting HQ endorsement. Word these letters so as to avoid seeming to solicit donations from private firms, business, or social organizations, or from the general public.

(6) Do not arrange special concessions or privileges for the donor.

b. Commanders, not the donor, will decide the category of personnel to receive gifts.

c. If two or more corporations or agencies donate similar items or collection of similar items, distribute them equally, as far as possible. Without DA authorization, do not issue more than one item or collection of items to an individual.
