Glossary

Chapter 1 Introduction

1-1. Purpose

This regulation prescribes responsibility and procedures for screening the Ready Reserve during peacetime. It provides a uniform system for administering and maintaining the Ready Reserve qualification records. It includes guidance for processing changes of address for Army National Guard of the United States (ARNGUS) and United States Army Reserve (USAR) soldiers not on active duty.

1-2. References

Required and related publications and prescribed and referenced forms are listed in appendix A.

1-3. Explanation of abbreviations and terms

Abbreviations and special terms used in this regulation are explained in the consolidated glossary located in the back of this volume.

1-4. Responsibilities

a. Chief, National Guard Bureau will implement and administer these procedures for the ARNGUS. An ARNGUS soldier will not be transferred to the Standby Reserve without proper consent. Consent must be granted by the Governor, or other appropriate authority of the State, District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico, whichever is concerned (10 USC 269(g)).

b. Commanding General, U S. Army Forces Command (CG, FORSCOM), and Commander, U.S. Army Reserve Personnel Center (ARPERCEN), will implement and administer these procedures for the USAR. These commanders are authorized to approve applications per this regulation, except those requiring Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA) approval. This authority may not be further delegated except to area commanders.

1-5. Reporting requirements

All required reports in this regulation are exempt from control under AR 335-15, paragraph 5-2*b*(4).

Chapter 2 Reserve Screening

Section I General

2-1. Scope

a. This chapter outlines responsibility and prescribes procedures for screening the Ready Reserve during peacetime. It applies to ARNGUS and USAR when not on active duty.

b. The screening of Ready Reserve soldiers will cease when they have received alert orders or orders to active duty. (AR 601-25 governs exceptions.)

2-2. Strength

The number of Ready Reserve personnel within each area command will normally not exceed the total of—

a. The authorized troop program strength of all ARNGUS and USAR units organized or programmed under the latest authorized Reserve Components troop basis. (See AR 140-1, chap 2 for HQDA policy regarding authorized overstrength in USAR troop program units.)

b. Requirements for individual mobilization augmentees documented in The Army Authorization Documents System and allocated to commands and agencies by HQDA (DAPE-MOB).

c. The ceiling for the Individual Ready Reserve (IRR) as furnished by HQDA. This ceiling is the bulk authorization, to include grade and military occupational specialty (MOS) requirements.

2-3. Retention in the Ready Reserve

a. ARNGUS soldiers should consult NGR 600-2.

b. All Ready Reservists will be retained in the Ready Reserve for the entire period of their statutory or voluntary contract. Exceptions to this policy will be by regulations as the Secretary of the Army may prescribe.

c. Ready Reserve soldiers may not be transferred from the Ready Reserve solely because they are students, interns, residents, or fellows in the health care professions. On mobilization, these reservists will either be deferred or mobilized in a student, intern, resident, or fellow status until qualified in the appropriate military specialty as prescribed by the Secretary of the Army.

d. Ready Reserve soldiers will keep their employers informed of their Reserve obligation with the Army to train regularly. This includes going on active duty when called or ordered. Unit commanders are responsible for advising every soldier of this requirement.

2-4. Disposition of members screened from the Ready Reserve

Members will be transferred either to the USAR Control Group (Standby or Inactive) or to the Retired Reserve (AR 140-10, paras 6-1 and 8-1). They must be eligible and must request it. Members may also be discharged per AR 135-175, AR 135-178, NGR 600-200, or NGR 635-100, as appropriate.

2-5. Objectives

Units and soldiers, when not on active duty, will be screened at least once each year to ensure that—

- a.* Strength does not exceed authorization.
- b.* A proper balance of military skills and grades is maintained in the Ready Reserve.
- c.* Soldiers whose removal is mandatory from the Ready Reserve or those who must be screened (para 2-6) are not retained in the Ready Reserve.
- d.* Minimal attrition occurs during mobilization.

Section II

General Screening Procedures

2-6. Requirements for removal from the Ready Reserve

Table 2-1 lists the requirements for removal of soldiers from the Ready Reserve. Options for soldiers so removed are provided in AR 140-10, NGR 600-200, and NGR 635-100.

2-7. Removal for hardship or religious reasons

Removal from the Ready Reserve for hardship or religious reasons is authorized on written request of the soldier. On occasion, the soldier may not be completely informed of the conditions under which he or she is qualified. When signs that screening action may be required, the area commander, State adjutant general, or Commander, ARPERCEN, will take the actions listed in a through c below. This will be after a review of information furnished by the soldier.

- a.* Contact and inform the soldier that he or she may be eligible for screening.
 - b.* Request that the soldier furnish more information and indicate the desire to remain in the Ready Reserve, or
 - c.* Be screened from the Ready Reserve, if eligible.
- (1) Hardship reasons. (See AR 601-25 for definition of hardship.)
- (a)* Soldiers requesting removal for personal hardship must furnish documentary evidence as prescribed in AR 135-178, chapter 4, section VI, or AR 601-25.
 - (b)* For extreme community hardship, soldiers must furnish documentary evidence. It must show that withdrawal from the community in a national emergency would adversely affect the health, safety, or welfare of the community.
 - (c)* Separate soldiers who validate hardship or dependency conditions under AR 135-175 or AR 135-178.
- (2) Religious reasons. The appropriate school or church official must document requests for removal.

2-8. Removal for other reasons

Forward requests for removal under table 2-1, rule 8, to HQDA(DAPE-MPR), WASH DC 20310-0300.

2-9. Mobilization augmentees

- a.* Ready Reserve soldiers who are also Department of Defense (DOD) employees may not hold mobilization assignments to the positions that they fill as civilian employees. These soldiers will be reassigned or transferred, as appropriate.
- b.* ARNGUS or USAR unit civilian technicians as unit soldiers are excluded from this provision.

Section III

Screening Procedures for Key Employees

2-10. Explanation of key employee and key position

A key employee is any Federal employee who occupies a key position that cannot be vacated during a national emergency or mobilization without seriously impairing the capability of the parent Federal agency or office to function effectively. Three categories of Federal key positions are outlined in a through c below. The categories at a and b below are, by definition, key positions. Only the final category requires a case-by-case determination and designation.

- a.* The Vice President of the United States, or any official specified in the order of presidential succession under 3 USC 19.
- b.* Members of Congress, heads of Federal agencies appointed by the President with the consent of the Senate, and the Federal judiciary (District, Circuit, and Supreme Court judges and justices only. All other positions within the Federal judiciary will be considered under c below). For this paragraph, the term “heads of Federal agencies” does not include any person appointed by the President with the consent of the Senate to a Federal agency as a member of a multimember board or commission. Positions occupied by such persons may be designated as key positions only by application of the criteria in paragraph 2–12.

c. Other Federal positions determined by Federal agency heads, or their designees, to be key positions. Guidelines for determining key positions are provided in paragraph 2–12c

2–11. Reserve status request

a. The DOD and the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) have requested the heads of Federal agencies or offices to—

(1) Conduct a continuous survey of all Federal employees who fill key positions under their jurisdiction and are Ready Reservists. This will serve to identify key employees per paragraph 2–10.

(2) Report to the appropriate armed force when hiring key employees or when a change of position occurs for these employees. Use the format shown in figure 2–1. Prepare and forward the letter to the address shown in figure 2–1.

b. ARPERCEN (DARP–PAT–RT) will forward these request to commanders for action.

c. Commanders concerned will remove soldiers from the Ready Reserve and notify the employer of the action taken. A cumulative record of screening actions will be maintained by fiscal year to include numbers of personnel screened from or retained in a Ready Reserve status and number of requests by requesting organization.

d. When the reason for screening no longer exists, a soldier may, on request, be considered for return to the Ready Reserve. Use regulations in effect at that time.

2–12. Key position guidelines

a. Some Federal employees occupy key positions that cannot be vacated during a national emergency or mobilization without seriously impairing the capability of their agency to effectively function. Because of the essential nature of these positions, the Federal agency head, or designee, may designate such positions as key positions. They may also require that these positions not be filled by Ready Reservists to preclude them being vacated during a mobilization.

b. All Ready Reserve soldiers occupying key positions will be transferred from the Ready Reserve to the Standby Reserve, the Retired Reserve if eligible, and so requested; or discharged. As an exception, Reserve officers with a remaining military service obligation at the time of their removal from the Ready Reserve may be transferred only to the Control Group (Active Standby) (10 USC 271(b) and 10 USC 1005).

c. In determining whether or not a position should be designated as a key position, the following questions should be considered by the Federal agency concerned:

(1) Can the position be filled in a reasonable time after mobilization?

(2) Does the position require technical or managerial skills that are uniquely possessed by the incumbent employee?

(3) Is the position associated directly with defense mobilization?

(4) Does the position include a mobilization or relocation assignment in an agency having emergency functions as listed in appendix B?

(5) Is the position directly associated with industrial or manpower mobilization as designated in EO 11490 (para (4) above) and EO 10480, “Further Providing for the Administration of the Defense Mobilization Program, August 14, 1953”?

(6) Are there other factors related to national defense, health, or safety that would make the incumbent of the position unavailable for mobilization?

2–13. Non-federal employee screening

a. Non-federal employers of reservists, particularly in the fields of public health, safety and defense support industries, are encouraged to adopt personnel management procedures designed to preclude conflicts between emergency manpower needs of civilian activities and the military during a mobilization.

b. Employees should be encouraged to inform their employers of their screening responsibilities. Employers are encouraged to use the Federal key positions guidelines contained herein for making their own key position designations and, as applicable, recommending key employees for removal from the Ready Reserve.

Chapter 3 Ready Reserve Qualification Records System

Section I General

3-1. Introduction

a. This chapter prescribes a uniform system to administer and to maintain Ready Reserve qualification records for USAR soldiers which consists of—

- (1) The official military personnel file (OMPF) and the Military Personnel Records Jacket, U.S. Army(MPRJ).
- (2) Computer personnel master file records.

b. The procedures in this chapter apply to all USAR soldiers except those who are—

- (1) On active duty.
- (2) Assigned to USAR Control Group (Officer Active Duty Obligor, ROTC, Delayed Entry, and Delayed).

c. This system provides a method to assemble, verify, and record information pertaining to a soldier. It is information that will influence a soldier's qualification for retention in the Ready Reserve or mobilization potential. The information includes but is not limited to the following:

- (1) Basic identification data.

- (2) Military qualifications.
- (3) Occupational and educational qualifications.
- (4) Medical fitness.
- (5) Dependency status.

d. The information is gathered initially from basic qualification records on appointment, enlistment, or transfer to the USAR from active duty. (Specialty classification evaluation procedures are in AR 140–158, AR 611–101, and AR 611–112.) Once established, the data will be reevaluated per AR 140–158 and chapter 1 of this regulation from information furnished by the soldier on—

- (1) DA Form 4213 (Supplemental Data Army Medical Service Reserve Officers).
- (2) DA Form 3725 (Army Reserve Status and Address Verification).
- (3) DA Form 2A, 2B, or 2C (USAR) (Personnel Qualification Record).

3–2. Objectives

The objectives of the system are to—

- a.* Determine eligibility of each soldier for retention in the Ready Reserve (chap 1).
- b.* Secure detailed data on the overall qualifications of each soldier to aid in proper specialty classification (AR 140–158, AR 611–101, and AR 611–112).
- c.* Furnish essential data on soldier’s qualifications and availability for active duty to HQDA agencies and subordinate commands. They will use the data for classification, assignment, and mobilization planning purposes.

3–3. Responsibilities

Area commanders and Commander, ARPERCEN, are responsible for the overall effectiveness of the system for soldiers under their administrative control.

3–4. Security investigation

Commanders will ensure that where soldiers’ SSI/MOS require it, security clearance data will be in evidence by DA Form 873 (Certification of Clearance and/or Security Determination), indicating security level specified in AR 611–101, AR 611–112, and AR 611–201, as appropriate.

3–5. Periodic medical examinations

These examinations are an integral part of the system. Therefore, soldiers will undergo medical fitness examinations as prescribed in AR 40–501. Between such examinations, unit soldiers will attest to their medical fitness on DA Form 2A, 2B, or 2C (USAR). Nonunit soldiers will use DA Form 3725 for this purpose.

3–6. Failure to complete forms or questionnaires

- a.* Commanders will ensure that forms distributed to soldiers are completed and returned promptly.
- b.* If completed forms or questionnaires are not received from the soldier by the suspense date, the commander will send another questionnaire. It will be identified as a follow-up and sent to the verified address.
- c.* Failure to complete and return forms or questionnaires identifies the soldier as an unsatisfactory participant. It also makes the soldier liable to the procedures prescribed in AR 135–91.

3–7. Retention of DA Form 4213

a. Commanders will retain the most recent verified DA Form 4213 in the MPRJ as a permanent document. A copy of the DA Form 4213 submitted to ARPERCEN for verification will be filed as a temporary document. (See para 3–13*b.*)

- b.* Gaining commanders will ensure that the DA Form 4213 is on file.

Section II

Nonunit Soldiers

3–8. Scope

This section applies to soldiers assigned to the IRR under the control of the CG, ARPERCEN.

3–9. Distributing forms

a. DA Form 4213. ARPERCEN will distribute three copies to AMEDD officers each year, 30 to 60 days before the retirement year anniversary date.

b. DA Form 3725. ARPERCEN will distribute DA Form 3725 annually to each IRR soldier 6 months after the individual’s birth month.

3-10. Completing and processing forms

a. DA Form 4213.

(1) AMEDD officers will prepare DA Form 4213 each year according to the instructions on the form. They will retain one copy; the original and one copy of the completed form will be sent to the Commander, ARPERCEN, ATTN: DARP-OPS, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, MO 63132-5200.

(2) The ARPERCEN surgeon will review the form and process it for classification.

(3) One copy of the form will be retained on file in the Officer Personnel Management Directorate (DARP-OP), ARPERCEN. The original will be forwarded for filing in the MPRJ. Prior forms may be destroyed.

b. DA Form 3725.

(1) Soldier will prepare DA Form 3725 according to the instructions on the form. After completing the form, they will return it to the appropriate commander for auditing and processing.

(2) ARPERCEN will destroy the DA Form 3725 after processing if it contains no data that would affect a change in a soldier's status (e.g., medical fitness, SSI).

Section III

Unit Soldiers

3-11. Responsibility

a. Each month, area commanders will furnish unit commanders the following:

(1) (Rescinded.)

(2) Roster of soldiers whose expiration of term of service (ETS) date, basic date for mandatory removal (BDMR), or date of last physical examination (DLPE) is 4 months from the processing month.

(3) Roster of soldiers with expired dates on ETS, DLPE, and BDMR.

b. Unit commanders will ensure that—

(1) Data on DA Form 2A, 2B, or 2C (USAR) is audited and reconciled with unit soldiers per AR 640-2-1, chapter 7 upon receipt from ARPERCEN.

(2) AMEDD officers complete DA Form 4213. (Stock of DA Form 4213 will be maintained by units.)

(3) Soldiers on a medical examination roster are given an examination within 120 days.

(4) The roster cited in a(2) above is properly annotated and sent to the MUSARC within 30 days.

3-12. Processing change of address

Process completed forms received which indicate a change in a soldier's address. (See chap 3 of this regulation and AR 140-10, para 2-15, for guidance.)

3-13. Completing and processing forms

Forms may be completed during drill assemblies provided no interference with training will result.

a. (Rescinded.)

b. DA Form 4213.

(1) AMEDD officers will prepare this form in triplicate.

(2) Send the original and one copy of the completed DA Form 4213 to Commander, ARPERCEN, ATTN: DARP-OPS, 9700 Page Boulevard, St. Louis, Mo 63132-5200. The remaining copy will be retained in the individual's MPRJ pending return of the verified copy from ARPERCEN. During processing, the form will be reviewed by the ARPERCEN surgeon. The original will be returned to the unit to provide verification of the officer's SSI. Upon receipt, the unit will remove all previous DA Forms 4213 and insert the newly verified form in the MPRJ. Documents removed will be forwarded to the officer and SSI changes made to records if required.

Section IV

Recording Form Changes

3-14. Recording changes on DA Form 2A, 2B, or 2C (USAR) or DA Form 2-1 (Personnel Qualification Record)

If changes in a soldier's status occur as a result of audit/reconciliation, they will be recorded on DA Form 2A, 2B, or 2C (USAR) or DA Form 2-1, as appropriate.

3-15. Data processing implications for forms

Use copies of completed forms received by the area commander to update the computer master record and issue orders when appropriate.

Chapter 4 Change of Address Reports

4-1. General

This chapter sets forth procedures for reporting and processing changes of address for ARNGUS and USAR soldiers when—

- a. Soldiers are not on active duty.
- b. At time of entry into active duty, their permanent home address was listed incorrectly in official records.

4-2. Address categories

Specific address categories are listed below.

a. Permanent home address (home of record). The permanent home address is the place of a soldier's established residence. This address will constitute the "home" and "home of record." It is defined in Joint Travel Regulations, paragraph M1150-3a. The definition also appears in Department of Defense Military Pay and Allowances Entitlement Manual, paragraph 10243a.

b. Temporary address. The address of the place where the soldier is or will be temporarily located while away from "home of record." c. Foreign address. The address in a foreign country in which the soldier will be residing or traveling.

4-3. Reporting changes of address

a. Soldiers who are out of the country for a month or more must furnish their immediate commander with a foreign address. This includes soldiers who reside or travel in a foreign country for that length of time. The soldier will also provide a mailing address in the United States through which mail would be forwarded. (See AR 340-25 for forwarding official mail to soldiers in foreign countries.)

b. Each soldier must furnish a permanent home address (home of record). When away from that permanent address for more than a month, the soldier will provide a temporary one as follows:

- (1) For ARNGUS personnel—to unit commander.
- (2) For USAR personnel—on appointment, enlistment, reenlistment after break in service, or on transfer to the USAR by the use of any official forms. A letter to the unit commander or to the Commander, ARPERCEN, as appropriate, will satisfy this requirement.

4-4. Processing status changes

a. For unit soldiers. Unit commanders will enter status changes on the DA Form 1379 (U.S. Army Reserve Components Unit Record of Reserve Training). They will send the DA Form 1379 to the area commander who will—

- (1) Take action as required in AR 135-91 or AR 140-10.
- (2) Update computer master files.

b. For nonunit soldiers. CG, ARPERCEN will take action as shown in a above.

4-5. Foreign travel of ARNGUS and USAR soldiers

a. Instruct ARNGUS soldiers planning to travel to a foreign country to—

- (1) Report to the Army attache or oversea area commander according to c(2) below.
- (2) Furnish HQDA(DAMI-AOC), WASH DC 20310, the dates of departure, foreign address, and expected date of return when the absence is to exceed 1 month.

b. USAR soldiers must submit a report that includes the following information to the custodian of their MPRJ:

- (1) Foreign address.
- (2) Address in the United States through which mail will be forwarded.
- (3) Estimated date of return to the United States.
- (4) Purpose of foreign travel or residence. If for business purposes, indicate occupation and name of employer.

c. If a USAR soldier indicates travel for more than 1 but less than 6 months within the area of jurisdiction of an oversea area command, the following actions are taken:

(1) The CONUS area commander will notify the oversea area commander by letter (fig 4-1) of the soldier's intent to travel in that area. Furnish a copy of the letter to HQDA(DAMI-AOC), WASH DC 20310.

(2) The soldier's commander will—

(a) Instruct the soldier, in writing, to report his or her presence and address (in person or by letter) to the U.S. Army attache or to the oversea area commander.

(b) Furnish the soldier with the address of the appropriate attaché or commander.

Administrative separation

Discharge or release from expiration of enlistment or required period of service, or before, as prescribed by the Department of the Army (DA) or by law. If one of the basis for separation includes a continuous unauthorized absence of 180 days or more, the consulting counsel will advise the soldier that a discharge under other than honorable conditions is a conditional bar to benefits administered by the Veterans Administration, notwithstanding any action by a Discharge Review Board. Separation by sentence of a general or special court-martial is not an administrative separation. (AR 135–178)

Administrative separation board

A board of officers, or officers and NCO's, appointed to make findings and to recommend retention in or separation from the service. The board states the reason and recommends the type of separation or discharge certificate to be furnished. (AR 135–178)

Applicant

a. A person who applies voluntarily for reenlistment in the USAR and is found eligible. A participant in the USAR AGR Program is considered an applicant on signing a completed DA Form 3340. (AR 140–111)

b. A member of the RA, ARNG, ARNGUS, or USAR who applies voluntarily for order to active duty or full-time National Guard duty in the Active Guard Reserve Program. (AR 135–18.)

Appointed counsel for consultation

a. A qualified counsel who is a commissioned officer of the Judge Advocate General's Corps who is appointed to consult with and advise, at the outset of any initiated involuntary separation proceedings, an individual being processed for separation under chapter 2, section II. This officer will advise the individual concerning the basis for his or her contemplated separation and its effect, the rights available to him or her, and the effect of any action taken in waiving such rights. The consulting counsel may advise the individual regarding the merits of the contemplated separation action when, in his or her professional judgement, such advice is appropriate. The consulting counsel should, however, inform the individual that he or she cannot represent him or her before a board of officers unless he or she is also appointed as counsel for representation. Communications between the individual and consulting counsel regarding the merits of the separation action are privileged communications between the attorney and client. (AR 135–175)

b. A qualified counsel who is a commissioned officer of the Judge Advocate General's Corps who is appointed to consult with and advise, at the outset of any initiated involuntary separation proceedings, and individual being processed for separation under this regulation. Nonlawyer counsel may be appointed when the soldier's place of assignment is more than 250 miles from sufficient judge advocate resources. When a nonlawyer counsel is appointed, appropriated authority will certify in a permanent record that a lawyer with these qualifications is not available and state the qualifications of the substituted nonlawyer counsel, who must be a commissioned officer in the grade of first lieutenant or higher. Such counseling may be accomplished face-to-face, by mail, or by telephone, as appropriate. This officer will advise the individual concerning the basis of the contemplated separation and its effect, the rights available to the soldier, and the effect of any action taken by the soldier in waiving such rights. The soldier will also be advised that the enlistment may be voided if he or she is being considered for separation for fraudulent entry (desertion from another military service). Consulting counsel may also advise the soldier regarding the merits of the contemplated separation when counsel believes such advice is proper. The soldier should be informed that the counsel cannot represent the soldier before an administrative board unless appointed as counsel for representation. Consulting counsel will advise the soldier that if he or she receives a discharge certificate which is less than an honorable discharge certificate, there is no automatic upgrading nor review by any Government agency. Upgrading is considered only on application to the Army Board for Correction of Military Records of the Army Discharge Review Board. Consideration by either of these boards does not guarantee upgrading of a discharge certificate that is less than an honorable discharge certificate. Communications between the soldier and consulting counsel regarding the merits of the separation action are privileged communications between the attorney and his or her client. If one of the basis for separation includes a continuous unauthorized absence of 180 days or more, the counsel will inform the soldier that a discharge under other than honorable conditions is a conditional bar to benefits administered by the Veterans Administration, notwithstanding any action by a Discharge Review Board. (AR 135–178)

Appointed counsel for representation

Can be defined as either a or b.

a. A counsel appointed to represent an individual who is being processed for separation during the course of any hearing before a board of officers. This counsel will possess the qualifications in (1) or (2) below, as applicable. The appointed counsel for representation and the appointed counsel for consultation need not be the same individual.

(1) The appointed counsel for an individual being processed for separation, which could result in issuance of a discharge under other than honorable conditions (chap 2), is a lawyer within the meaning of the Uniform Code of Military Justice, Article 27(b)(1), unless an appropriate authority certifies in the permanent record that a lawyer with these qualifications is not available and states the qualifications of the substitute nonlawyer counsel. (See fig 1–1 for an example of a statement of nonavailability and appointment of counsel.)

(2) The appointed counsel for an individual being processed for separation for cause, where only separation with an Honorable Discharge Certificate may be effected (para 2–11), should be a lawyer if one is reasonably available. This lawyer need not be qualified under Article 27(b)(1), UCMJ. If a lawyer is not reasonably available, the appointed counsel must be a commissioned officer in the grade of first lieutenant or higher. (AR 135–175)

b. A military counsel designated per AR 27–10, chapter 6, or a civilian counsel retained by the soldier at no expense to the Government, to represent the soldier in a hearing before an administrative separation board. Such military counsel will be a lawyer per Article 27B91), Uniform Code of Military Justice. The convening authority may designate a nonlawyer as assistant counsel.
