Section VI

Computing Travel Time and Active Duty Date

2-29. General

This section gives direction on computing travel time to the first duty station and determining date of entry on AD. ARNGUS or USAR soldiers ordered to AD will be given instructions consistent with this section.

2-30. Date of entry on active duty

The date of entry on AD will not be shown on the orders. The U.S. Army Reception Battalion or first AD organization determines the date per Department of Defense Financial Management Regulation (DODFMR) and the Joint Federal Travel Regulation (JFTR).

2-31. Reporting date

The reporting date will be specifically stated in the orders. It will not be changed after the soldier begins travel en route to the first duty station. Deviations will be treated as follows:

a. Absence after the directed reporting date will be absent without leave (AWOL) time, unless excused per AR 600-8-10 or AR 630-10.

b. A soldier reporting before the date he is authorized to begin travel will be in a nonduty, nonpay status. The soldier will not be accepted for duty unless the orders issuing authority amends the orders to show an earlier reporting date.

2-32. Explanation of travel terms

a. Commuting distance. The greatest reasonable distance a soldier could be expected to travel daily between his or her home and duty station. The installation commander determines distance on the basis of local practice, travel time, and available modes of transportation.

b. Travel time. The amount of travel time allowed determines the date pay begins. Persons are entitled to travel time when they must begin travel on a date before the reporting date shown on their orders.

2-33. Authorized travel time

Allowable travel time and computation methods are determined per DODFMR and JFTR.

2-34. Unauthorized travel time

A person who lives within commuting distance of the first duty station will begin travel on the reporting date. He or she is entitled to receive pay for this day. Pay will not begin earlier than the reporting date. The first duty station commander will determine commuting distance based on local practice, distance, travel time, and available modes of transportation.

2-35. Travel expenses

a. Soldiers may travel to the first duty station at their own expense or they may request that the Government furnish transportation. Soldiers who travel at their own expense will be reimbursed as prescribed in the JFTR.

b. A soldier may get a transportation request from the transportation officer at any military installation or activity (U.S. Property and Fiscal Officer for ARNGUS soldiers). The soldier must present a copy of his or her AD orders. The request may be made by letter or memorandum. Submit applications promptly so that reservations can be made and tickets obtained in time to begin travel on the required date.

c. When transportation of dependents is authorized, JFTR volume 1, chapter 7, applies.

Chapter 3

Temporary Tour of Active Duty

Section I

Introduction

3-1. Description of Temporary Tour of Active Duty (TTAD)

- a. Only Reserve soldiers are authorized to perform active duty for special work. Active duty for special work when paid from Military Personnel, Army (MPA) appropriations is identified as a Temporary Tour of Active Duty (TTAD). TTAD is voluntary AD performed by ARNGUS and USAR soldiers who possess special expertise needed for short term support or completion of an essential active force mission. A TTAD will not normally last 139 days in length.

b. In exceptional situations and with Secretary of the Army (SA), or the Secretary's designee, approval, Retired Reserve soldiers may be ordered to TTAD. The support requirement must be temporary in nature.

c. A TTAD may require Active Army end strength accountability (para 3-3i). (See AR 135-200, paras 1-6 and 1-7 for guidance on computation of active duty time which requires Active Army end strength accountability and reporting.)

3-2. Use of TTAD

a. TTAD is authorized for—

(1) Support of an active force mission of the Active Army, a Unified or Specified Command, Office of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (OJCS), or Office Secretary of Defense (OSD).

(2) Use by the U.S. Corps of Engineers (USACE) in a disaster or emergency operation on a reimbursable basis.

(3) Support of a contingency operation. (This includes support of an Active Army contingency operation assigned to the Reserve components under current mobilization/operational plans.)

(4) Operational missions. (For explanation of TTAD for operational missions and request procedures, see section VI below.)

a. TTAD will not be used;

(1) As a career accession program.

(2) To accomplish reserve force peacetime missions, support, or special projects. (For support of special projects of the Army Reserve components, see AR 135-200.

(3) For staff augmentation.

(4) For normal mission accomplishment.

(5) To evade manpower ceilings.

(6) To temporarily fill a vacant approved position.

(7) For a task or mission within peacetime duties of a military or civilian position.

(8) As a mode of training to include professional development training. (Experience gained or enhancement of a soldier's mobilization readiness is not a consideration in determining whether TTAD is warranted.)

Section II

Requirements for TTAD

3-3. Program policy

a. The TTAD Program is designed to meet a short term (temporary) need for the purposes stated in paragraph 3-2a above. If a tour exceeds 139 consecutive days, the requester must show that the tour is in the best interest of the Army.

b. Tour requests will be sent through the organization's chain of command to Commander, PERSCOM ATTN: TAPC-OPD-RT, 9700 Page Avenue, St. Louis, MO 63132-5200. Commander, PERSCOM (TAPC-OPD-RT) will forward requests for tours exceeding 180 days (including travel time) or an extension which will result in a tour exceeding 180 days to Commander, PERSCOM (TAPC-OPD) for approval.

c. Justification for a TTAD exceeding 180 days or a TTAD extension which will result in a tour exceeding 180 days must include the Active Army Officer Distribution Plan (ODP) or entitled position to remain vacant during the tour.

d. Consent from the Governor or other appropriate State or Territorial authority is required for ARNGUS soldiers to serve on TTAD.

e. Consecutive (back to back) tours totaling in excess of 139 days at the same location in a TDY (per diem) status are not authorized.

f. The soldier's pay and allowances for a TTAD is funded by Military Personnel, Army (MPA) appropriations. Operations and Maintenance, Army (OMA) appropriations are used for travel and per diem. The Active Army agency or command or, in appropriate cases, OSD, OJCS, Joint Command or non-DOD agency requesting the TTAD is responsible for the participant's travel and per diem costs. (See para 3-15c for information regarding funding for contingency operations.)

g. Order for TTAD to fill an Active Army contingency need will be published for a period not less than 31 days. (See section V for policy regarding the use of TTAD for contingency operations.)

h. ARNG and USAR soldiers ordered to AD under the TTAD Program:

(1) Remain assigned to their Reserve component and under ARNGUS or USAR strength accountability. Soldiers are attached to the Active Army or other authorized organization/unit/agency for performance of the tour. If an officer's name is on a USAR position vacancy promotion list, or if the officer has been selected for Federal recognition in the next higher grade, the officer's name must be administratively withdrawn from promotion or federal recognition recommendation on the tour start date. The officer must acknowledge this withdrawal action on the active duty application. This is not an adverse action. It will not be considered a nonselection.

Release will be per AR 635-200, paragraph 4-2 (enlisted) or AR 600-8-24, paragraph 2-7 (officers). Only PERSCOM can amend orders to extend or terminate a tour. (See AR 135-381, chap 7 for procedures when a soldier qualifies for retention on AD due to an in line of duty injury, illness, or disease.)

(6) Will be reported to HQDA (DAPE-MPE) per AR 135-200, paragraph 1-7, if the soldier exceeds a 180-day (including travel time) accumulation of TTAD or any combination of TTAD and ADSW totaling over 180 days within a fiscal year (FY). Reporting per paragraph 1-7 is required whether or not the soldier is subject to accounting against the Active Army end strength (para i below) or the Active Guard Reserve (AGR) end strength (AR 135-200, para 1-6).

(7) Will not perform inactive duty training (IDT), AT, ADT, or any other duty not authorized in the approved TTAD request while serving on a TTAD.

i. A TTAD participant will be counted against the Active Army end strength if he or she is in TTAD status on 30 September and one of the circumstances in paragraph (1) through (3) below apply. (Even if officers are counted against the Active Army end strength, they are excluded from certain officer strength in grade limitations.)

(1) The soldier has accumulated over 180 days (including travel time) of TTAD within the FY; or

(2) The soldier has accumulated over 180 days of TTAD and ADSW combined within the FY.

(3) The soldier's current TTAD tour will exceed 180 days whether or not it is completed by 30 September of the fiscal year.

j. A USAR TPU soldier ordered to or extended on a TTAD which will result in the soldier being on TTAD over 180 consecutive days will be reassigned to the IRR unless TPU retention is approved under paragraph 3-7e. Such soldiers must be included in the Active Army end strength if TTAD continues through 30 September (see para 3-3i above). (This transfer policy does not apply to TTAD in support of a contingency operation under section V.)

k. AR 600-8-24 and AR 635-200, as appropriate, govern the early release or discharge of soldiers while on TTAD.

This break only applies if the soldier has accumulated more than 30 days of ADSW and/or TTAD during the last quarter of the previous FY. The break may be waived by PERSCOM (TAPC-OPD) when mission requirements dictate expertise or skills possessed by a soldier which are not readily available elsewhere. Send requests through command channels. Requests will document the reasons why the prior ADSW/TTAD tour was not extended to permit the performance of current mission requirements.

b. Soldiers orders to AD in TTAD status serve on self-terminating orders. Self-terminating orders are those which by their own terms automatically terminate on the specified effective date.

c. TTAD orders are issued by PERSCOM (STL) in orders formats according to AR 600-8-105. The following instructions also apply:

(1) Orders will state one of the following authorities:

(a) 10 USC 12301(d) for Reserve of the Army who are not Retired Reserve soldiers described in (b) below.

Section V Temporary Tour of Active Duty in Support of Contingency Operations

3-15. Contingency policy

a. The instructions in this section will be implemented when the Secretary of Defense declares that an emergency exists that requires the services of individual ARNGUS or USAR soldiers (not already ordered to active duty pursuant to a Presidential Selected Reserve Call-up (PSRC) or other mobilization authority) in support of a contingency operation.

b. TTAD in support of contingency operations is voluntary only. TTAD may be used to order Reserve of the Army soldiers to AD for a contingency operation of the Active Army, OSD, OICS, or Joint Command when the mission requires specialized experience or knowledge which they possess and which is unavailable in the Active Army. During a contingency operation, ARPERCEN will maintain a list of volunteers. Priority for consideration as a volunteer is listed in paragraph 3-17a. Soldiers may serve on TTAD as backfills for Active Army units. Except as specifically addressed in this section, the administrative procedures of chapter 3, section I through IV also apply to TTAD authorized for contingency operations.

c. When a contingency operation is authorized, DA DCSPER will determine the MPA and OMA fund cite for approved tours.

d. Orders for TTAD in support of a contingency operation will be for a period not less than 31 days and will not exceed 139 days. Exceptions to tour lengths and extension procedures for each contingency operation will be announced by HQDA.

3-16. Tour requests

Request for TTAD for contingency operations will be sent through command channels to HQDA (DAMO-ODM) for final approval. The request must specify why the duties can not be accomplished by Active Army personnel.

3-17. Volunteers for TTAD for contingency operations

a. Priority consideration as volunteers for TTAD during a contingency operation will be in the order listed in subparagraph (1) through (5) below. IMAs and TPU soldiers (subparagraph b(2) and (3) below) may be utilized as volunteers outside their assigned unit/organization only with DCSPER and Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations (DCSOPS) approval when required skills are not available from any other source. Volunteers described in subparagraph (1) may be ordered to TTAD per the authority of 10 USC 688(a). The authority for TTAD performed by soldiers in subparagraph (2) through (5) is 10 USC 12301(d).

(1) Retired Reserve soldiers. Approval of the Secretary of the Army; or the Secretary's designee, is required prior to ordering a retired soldier to AD

(2) IRR soldiers. Volunteers must be screened and certified as skill qualified by ARPERCEN. The gaining unit must confirm the soldier's qualifications. Individuals who have not been awarded an MOS will not be accepted as volunteers. If an IRR soldier is serving on TTAD in support of a contingency operation when a partial mobilization is authorized, TTAD orders will terminate and the soldier will be ordered to AD per 10 USC 12302(a).

(3) IMA soldiers. IMAs who volunteer for TTAD in support of a contingency operation which does not require the involuntary call-up of IMAs must obtain approval from their unit/organization of assignment and be certified as skill qualified by their unit/organization commander. If approval to volunteer is granted, the unit/ organization commander will forward the request to CG, ARPERCEN where a current list of volunteers is maintained during a contingency operation. DCSPER and DCSOPS approval is required according to subparagraph a above, if the IMA is to be utilized outside his or her assigned unit/organization. Soldiers remain subject to mobilization orders of their assigned unit.

(4) ARNGUS and USAR unit soldiers. Unit soldiers may volunteer for TTAD in support of contingency operations which do not require the involuntary call-up of Reserve component units. Volunteers must obtain approval from their unit of assignment and be certified as skill qualified by their unit commander. If approval to volunteer is granted, the unit commander will forward the soldier's name through the State Area Reserve Command (STARC) or the appropriate Army Reserve Command/General Officer Command (ARCOM/GOCOM) to CG, ARPERCEN. DCSPER and DCSOPS approval is required according to subparagraph a above, if the soldier is to be utilized outside his or her assigned unit. Soldiers remain subject to mobilization orders of their assigned unit.

3-18. Selection for TTAD in support of a contingency operation

The requesting agency may submit a by-name request. If a by-name request has not been made or is disapproved, PERSCOM will request the Chief, NGB or CDR, ARPERCEN (ARPC-MOP-R or ARPC-MOP-M (for Retired Reserve soldiers)), as appropriate, identify volunteers with the required qualifications.

3-20. Waivers

A waiver of administrative procedures of this section may be requested from HQDA (DAPE-MP).

Section VI

TTAD for Operational Missions

3-21. Policy

a. Except as specifically addressed in this section, the administrative procedures of chapter 3, sections I through IV also apply to TTAD authorized for operational missions. In the event of a PSRC or mobilization, the unit soldier must be released from TTAD and returned to his or her unit of assignment for mobilization with the unit.

b. TTAD for operational missions is used for an Active force mission which cannot be accomplished by Active Army personnel. It is performed in support of Commanders in Chief (CINCs) for current operations and mission requirements supporting go to war missions.

c. The length of TTAD tours for operational missions is 31–139 days. (Tours of less than 31 days are permitted when the requirements support shorter tours.) Waivers or extensions of tour lengths will be processed according to paragraph 3-3 and 3-8 of this regulation.

d. DCSOPS (DAMO-ODM) will annually publish guidelines and requirements for the conduct and execution of operational missions to be performed on TTAD tours. Guidance will include man-year allocations to selected CINCs and Army MACOMs designated by DCSOPS for planning purposes.

3-22. Request procedures

a. CINCs and MACOMs designated by DCSOPS may approve TTAD for operational missions within their funding authorization and process requests for orders per b below.

b. All requests for TTAD for operational missions will be submitted to CDR, PERSCOM, ATTN: TAPC-OPD-RT, 9700 Page Ave., St. Louis, MO for issuance of TTAD orders. The following will be provided:

(1) A Request for Orders (RFO) completed by the requesting command.

(2) A properly completed DA Form 1058-R will accompany the RFO if a by-name request is made. If the applicant for TTAD is a unit soldier, the unit commander must enter and sign a statement in the Remarks section (block 24) of the DA Form 1058-R certifying that the soldier does not fill a key/essential position and that loss of the soldier for this tour will not impact on the readiness status of the unit.

(3) OMA fund cite to cover travel and per diem of the soldier.

Chapter 4

Active Duty When in a Captive Status

Section I

Introduction

4-1. General

a. This chapter prescribes policy and procedures for ordering ARNGUS and USAR soldiers to active duty when in a captive status (ADCS).

b. Captive status is defined as the official status in which a soldier is carried when determined to be absent in the status of missing; missing in action; interned in a foreign country; captured; beleaguered, or besieged by a hostile force; or detained in a foreign country against his or her will.

d. Notification and reporting of soldiers in captive status is accomplished per AR 600-8-1.

4-2. Description of ADCS

a. Active duty in a captive status (ADCS) is involuntary AD. It is used only when an ARNGUS or USAR soldier is in a captive status as defined in paragraph 4-1.

b. There is no maximum period of time a soldier may be kept on ADCS. A soldier ordered to AD under this section may not be retained on AD, without his or her consent, for more than 30 days after his or her captive status is terminated.

c. Active duty in a captive status is a temporary duty status.

d. Active duty in a captive status is funded by Military Personnel, Army (MPA) appropriations. Operations and Maintenance, Army (OMA) appropriations are used for TDY and travel costs.

4-3. ADCS Responsibilities

a. The CG, PERSCOM will—

 - (5) Issue ADCS orders per AR 600–8–105 and HQDA instructions.
- b.* The Director of Staff Management, Office of the Chief of Staff, Army (DACS–DMC) is final approval authority for ADCS requests.

4–4. ADCS policy

a. Section 12301(g), title 10, United States Code authorizes the Secretary of the Army to place captive soldiers in a status that affords the soldier's dependents with benefits and entitlements commensurate with the active force.

b. This policy applies to ARNGUS and USAR soldiers taken captive as a result of hostile action while serving on the following types of duty: (covered period includes travel to and from such duty.)

- (1) All AD including:
