MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Sergeant Audie Murphy Memorandum of Recommendation for

1. I highly recommend                      for induction into the Sergeant Audie Murphy Club. SSG Tutor embodies the Army's Warrior Spirit and is the quintessential leader that any Command Sergeant Major would be thrilled to have in their organization.
2.                      leadership pedigree sets him apart from his peers in the 168th Multifunctional Medical Battalion. He routinely scores 300 on the Army APFT and has substantially raised the level of fitness of his Soldiers and has significantly improved his company's APFT average through his example and determination.
3.                      has held a myriad of additional duties while simultaneously leading and training his Soldiers. During the peninsula-wide FY07 "EFMB on the DMZ", SSG Tutor personally trained the company's Soldier-Medics resulting in 75% passing the written exam and 1 Soldier receiving the coveted badge. During this time he also counseled and prepared 5 Soldiers for reenlistment as the company Reenlistment NCO. SSG Tutor freely shares the Army story to subordinates and peers and vigorously supports the Commander's Reenlistment program.
4.                      exemplifies the Warrior Spirit that Sergeant Audie Murphy personified over 60 years ago. He will be an asset to the Sergeant Audie Murphy Club and serve as an active member for the duration of his Army career.

MEMORANDUM FOR RECORD

SUBJECT: Sergeant Audie Murphy Club Memorandum of Recommendation for

1. It is without hesitation that I highly recommend _____ for induction into the Sergeant Audie Murphy Club. _____ is a highly skilled warrior medic and superb leader. He routinely operates at two pay grades above his current rank. _____ has mentored several Soldiers who won company and battalion competitive boards. He personally trained and prepared 12 of my company's medics for the rigorous "EFMB on the DMZ" FY07. Not only did he prepare them physically, but he also guided them academically in garrison and lead study groups during preparation and test week. His efforts resulted in 75% written exam pass rate which was 3 times the division average. Ultimately, one of his Soldiers received the badge.
2. _____ always understands and completes all assigned and implied tasks associated with missions he is assigned. I know that once I put a mission in front of SSG Tutor, I can rest assured that he will complete it to a high professional standard and defer the praise to his fellow Soldiers.
3. Physically, _____ maintains a 300 APFT average from the day he came to the unit and motivates his Soldiers to achieve the same. Since he took over the company's PT program our average has increased by 12 points in only 12 weeks. While at BNCO, he routinely called and inquired about the Soldiers progress and freely shared tips to continue their improvement in his absence.
4. _____ embodies the Warrior Spirit that was manifest through Sergeant Audie Murphy audacious actions over 60 years ago. He is an asset to the United States Army and I have no doubt that he will represent the club well for the rest of his military career, serve as an ambassador, and mentor future inductees.

"Moral Duty"

By

Duty is defined as the work that you are obliged to perform for moral, ethical and legal reasons. In the United States, when people get hired for a job, they feel its there duty to come to work and do what's necessary to get them through there day or they will get fired. But in the United States Army, a person's mindset of what duty stands for is what makes our military the most powerful in the world.

According to Webster's dictionary, Duty is defined as the work that obligates a person to perform for legal and moral reasons. The key word for true leaders is "moral". Yes it is our legal job to train our Soldiers and make sure they adhere to the Army standards, but it's the NCO Corps moral obligation that truly defines us as leaders. The NCO Corp is built around the concept of living the Army values of loyalty, respect, selfless service, honor, integrity, personal courage and duty on a daily basis and having the Creed of the Non-Commissioned Officers embedded in our hearts.

But with great leaders comes great sacrifice. It is an ongoing process, not a one time payment. Gerald Brooks stated "When you become a leader, you lose the right to think about yourself." As leaders, before we can make it our moral duty to lead our Soldiers, we have to make it our moral duty to develop ourselves which gives our Soldiers the best example for them to follow. As leaders we do this by setting the highest goals possible for ourselves, setting numerous small goals to achieve that big goal and mentoring our Soldiers to achieve the same goals now that they know, through their leader, it can be done.

The NCO rank is the most powerful, respected, and dependable position in the Army. It is the Non-Commissioned Officers moral duty to provide the highest quality of leadership available to the Soldiers of our fine United States Army.

The key is not to expect the Soldiers to follow a leader simply because of the rank. Rather to have them follow the leader by the leadership and the example that he/she presents on a daily basis. This concept begins with trust between the leader and the Soldier. To build trust, a leader must exemplify competence, connection and character. Character makes trust possible which then makes leadership possible. If a leader repeatedly shows poor judgment, even in little things, his Soldiers will start to question his competence and ability to lead.

Just as in sports a coach needs a team of good players to win, the Army needs teams with good leaders to succeed. Thus is shown when the Army values are broken down, it spells the word L-D-R-S-H-I-P. Understanding, living and constantly striving to adhere to the Army Values, the Soldiers leadership ability will strengthen the organizational effectiveness within their Soldiers and the unit. Colin Powell once said "You have achieved excellence as a leader when people will follow you everywhere if only out of curiosity."

Duty is also defined as, the social force that binds you to your obligations. No matter how much a leader learns from their past experiences, it will never tell them all they need to know for the present. A leader's obligation to their Soldiers is continuous growth in their leadership ability. Never becoming complacent and always seeking to grow in every aspect of the leader's character. The leader's Soldiers will validate their effectiveness. My father always told me "The only thing that walks back from the tomb with the mourners and refuses to be buried is the character of a man. This is true. What a leader is survives him. Its can never be buried. So we should ask, will my leadership survive me or be buried away in my Soldiers mind? The true leader already knows the answer.
