

IMPLIED CONSENT WARNING

BEFORE A CHEMICAL TEST IS PRESENTED TO THE SUSPECT, INFORM HIM/HER OF THE FOLLOWING:

1. Implied Consent means that any person given the privilege of operating a motor vehicle on a military installation or area under military control, to include overseas areas, shall be deemed to have given his or her consent to a chemical test of his or her blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the alcoholic content of his or her blood if lawfully stopped, apprehended, or cited for any offense allegedly committed while under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

2. (For Stateside) If you refuse to take the chemical test or fail to complete the test, you may lose your on-post driving privilege.

(For Overseas) If you refuse to take the chemical test or fail to complete the test, you may lose your on and off post driving privilege.

3. You do not have the right to have an attorney present before stating whether or not you will submit to the test or during the test.

Ask suspect if he or she understands what you have told him/her. Then ask him or her:

4. At this time, are you willing to take the chemical test?
